Message from the Padre

Things have changed since the last century. Today, we live in a world of computers, email, Internet and cell phones. The technology of our age has enabled us to make connections with one another in ways we never imagined. It used to be that we go to the library to study and do research, but now with just one finger… we “Google”… and there it is, you have all the answers.

Yes, modern technology has improved the quality of our existence, but we need to know that if we are not careful… “modern technology” itself can dehumanized God’s own creation. Overtime, this modern technology becomes a part of our everyday life… and as we enjoy the advantage of easy “access” and easy “connections,” we are also taking the risk of creating a problem of a non-meaningful disconnected relationship.

In our Gospel this weekend, Jesus said that he is the “True Vine.” Christ used the image of the vine and the branches to describe our connection with the Father and the Son.... a connection of one body ... one spirit in Christ. Some of us may find this unrealistic, but we have to remember that in order for the branches to grow and bear fruit… it has to be connected to a true vine. We need to remember this because if we don’t, we can spend lots of hours trying to find true peace, but it will end up in vain until we are connected in Christ, the maker of our hearts.

This week, as we continue our Easter observance, let us remind ourselves of Jesus’ words of “I am the vine, you are the branches, whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit.” This is the kind of connection we need in our lives…a true connection with Christ who is “the Way… the Truth… and the Life.”

Thank you!
Saint Paul makes his first appearance in Jerusalem since his conversion and many of the disciples are wary of him. But Paul shows that he is in Christ and Christ is in him. As we hear in the Gospel, this is what Jesus asked of his disciples. He promised that they would bear much fruit. As we listen to the readings today, let us consider how we too are asked to remain in Jesus and how we can bear fruit.
